(Charlotte, NC. November 5, 2010). John F. Krug, Vice President and senior consultant at Development Advisors, will present the Keynote Presentation, "Anatomy of a Project" at the Area Development magazine "Consultant's Forum" in Savannah, Georgia on December 5-7, 2010. The presentation features an inside perspective on the Mitsubishi Power Systems America's Inc. $325 million mega-project recently completed in Pooler, Georgia just outside Savannah.

The Consultants Forum conference series is organized by Area Development magazine at venues throughout North America. The program's reputation is essentially a no-nonsense, insightful event where attendees learn about the latest deciding factors in the site selection process from the best in site consulting, real estate, and corporate facilities. Attendance is limited to no more than 100 industry professionals to assure meaningful interaction among participants. The 10th Consultants Forum is being held in Savannah at the Mansion on Forsyth Park and features an outstanding speakers program.
